Connections between the Animals (and the Humans)

Rex Wolf, Owen Fox, and Jules (the Human) all are neighbors in the forest treehouses and good playmates. Rex likes to tag Jules on windy days because he thinks the wind will pull Jules back so that he can tag him. Owen wants a TV for his birthday, so Rex and Jules are planning on getting him one, don't tell Owen!

Lucy Owl likes Annicke Mouse very much and at night they hang out and play in the trees. When Sky (the Human) can't sleep, Lucy and Annicke look in through the window, and Lucy brings Annicke to her house so that they can gaze at the stars. Sky's wooden cottage by Mary's garden makes it amazing to look at and talk to all the floral life.

Once Ella Toad notices Zoe Rabbit's cool costume, she taps Zoe on the shoulder so they can hang out and paint on balloons. Zoe's favorite holiday is Twinkle Day, but Ella's is Egg Day. They run around in the greenery that is Mary's garden until the sunset is a pretty shade of pink.

Ada (the Human) and Wooly Lamb, Ada's Mom being the Teacher and Dad as the baker, have a fun day at school in the fall. When the leaves are orange, Ada gets her best boots and goes stomping in all the leaves. Wooly and Ada sew or make dresses for Teacher out of wool.
