

Hazel Village: Wooly's Story

Wooly woke up and started gathering pinecones. Wooly knew they were Annicke's favorite. So Wooly piled them all outside of her house. Then Wooly went over to the pond and found a floating toad! It was Ella, in her raincoat, basking on the pond. She was floating on her back with her arms spread wide and her legs crossed. Wooly waded in and gave her a little splash. She woke up and splashed Wooly back. They played splashing for a while until Wooly was all wet. Ella said that next time Wooly should get a raincoat in order to keep all the wool dry.

Wooly saw Annicke and she thanked Wooly for all the pinecones. Next, Wooly went over to River's house and woke her up. River went over to the stream bridge and started doing her morning dancing and leg lifts. Wooly woke up Ada too, and Ada went over to join River. Both Ada and Wooly tried to do the dancing, copying River. They tried their best! Then they played catch with some pinecones. One rolled to Mary's house and Mary came out and handed the pinecone back. They had fun playing all day, as they always do, in Hazel Village.
